

Webinar Handout:

10 Tips for Connecting Families to the Bridges[®] Classroom

October 24, 2018

Resources for Families at mathlearningcenter.org/families

- Information, downloads, and links to games and activities at mathlearningcenter.org/families.
- Overview of Bridges in Mathematics for families available in English PDF and Spanish.
- Family Welcome Letters & Bridges Unit Overviews in English and Spanish.
 - Pre-K
 - Kindergarten
 - Grade 1
 - Grade 2
 - Grade 3
 - Grade 4
 - Grade 5

Blogs for Educators on the Bridges Educator Site (requires an account)

- Seesaw—A Student-Driven Digital Portfolio to Demonstrate Learning
- Bridges & STEM
- Sharing Multi-Digit Multiplication Strategies with Families
- Fact Fluency & Families

Videos on Math Education

- Dan Meyer: “Why Math Needs a Makeover”
- Jo Boaler: “The Importance of Struggle”

YouCubed

An organization whose goal is to inspire, educate and empower teachers of mathematics, transforming the latest research on math learning into accessible and practical forms.

www.youcubed.org

Reflective Questions for Homework

- What was the big idea I worked on today?
- What did I learn today?
- What good ideas did I have today?
- Where could I use the knowledge I learned today?
- What questions do I have about today’s work?
- What new ideas do I have that this lesson made me think about?