Five Autumn Leaves

Traditional chant retold by Allyn Fisher
Art by Jami Smith
Five autumn leaves that liked to sway
Were dancing about on a tree one day.
The wind came blowing through the town
And one little leaf came tumbling down.
Four autumn leaves that liked to sway
Were dancing about on a tree one day.
The wind came blowing through the town
And one little leaf came tumbling down.
Three autumn leaves that liked to sway
Were dancing about on a tree one day.
The wind came blowing through the town
And one little leaf came tumbling down.
Two autumn leaves that liked to sway
Were dancing about on a tree one day.
The wind came blowing through the town
And one little leaf came tumbling down.
One autumn leaf that liked to sway
Was dancing about on a tree one day.
The wind came blowing through the town
And the last little leaf came tumbling down.
