Robot
Number Riddles
by Allyn Fisher · Art by Jami Smith
Robot Number Riddles
by Allyn Fisher ∙ Art by Jami Smith
Some robots have an antenna on the top or side of their head. They use their antennas to send and receive radio signals or find their way around when there isn’t much light.

Some robots have more than one antenna. Solve the number riddles to find out how many antennas the other robots in this book have.
1 + 1

Robot, robot,
Riddle-dee-dee
How many antennas will we see?
This robot has 2 antennas.
Robot, robot,
Riddle-dee-dee-dee
How many antennas will we see?
This robot has 4 antennas.
Robot, robot,
Riddle-dee-dee
t + 3

Robot, robot,
Riddle-dee-dee
How many antennas will we see?
This robot has 6 antennas.
Robot, robot,
Riddle-dee-dee-dee
How many antennas will we see?
This robot has 8 antennas.
Robot, robot, Riddle-dee-dee How many antennas will we see?
This robot has 10 antennas.